

Organized For Life

sponsored by the

Concord Quarter Working Group on Aging Concerns

Presentation by Carol Bernard of Hockessin Meeting
Saturday, November 16, 2019

9:30 AM to 12:00 PM followed by a light lunch

At Willistown Meeting

Carol Bernard is co-clerk of Hockessin Meeting's Ministry and Care Committee. She has a Masters Degree from the University of Delaware in Human Development and Family Studies. Carol retired from the University of Delaware in 2018 after managing the university's Osher Lifelong Learning Institute (OLLI).

Her interactive workshop covers how to deal with possessions including organizing, downsizing and recycling or discarding items. Participants should be prepared to share on a personal level as we will explore what we want to spend our time and energy on and how we view the rest of our lives.

Willistown Meeting is located at 7069 Goshen Rd, Newtown Square, PA 19073

For info and to register go to <https://concordquarter.org/aging-concerns/downsizing>

If you will be staying for lunch, please email concordquarter@pym.org an RSVP by November 13 or call 610-864-3802 and leave a message